Praeses Reveals Updated Corporate Logo

Logo Reflects Expansion of Information Technology Services and Solutions

SHREVEPORT, LOUISIANA – April 28, 2010– Praeses, a national leader in providing trusted information management services, today unveiled its updated logo to the public. The new brand is designed to reflect today's Praeses, an established company focused on people, process, and proven and consistent results to meet the needs of its customers.

“For over two decades, we have provided customers with solutions and services to fit their specific business’ needs,” stated Frank Auer, Praeses Chief Executive Officer. “By using a shared Praeses graphic identity system, we can help build upon the Praeses reputation for excellence. We can increase the quality, efficiency, and cost-effectiveness of our communications efforts and better reflect the diversity of our technology offerings. We have grown our capabilities with new product offerings, developed new technologies, and acquired new clients across several distinct markets. All of these aspects have culminated in expanding our identity as a modernized leader in information technology consulting and management.”

The updated logo is the first step in the ongoing evolution of Praeses’ overall brand. A new website, marketing and corporate collateral, exhibition displays, and promotional items will soon be unveiled to the public. Praeses will also provide the media and other interested parties with its Graphics Standards Manual which will provide information and guidelines for use of the updated logo.
